The horror continues...

“Well, what are you doing here? Did you get lost? You don’t have to be scared!” ... but the sardonic laughter is a sinister omen! Friendly clowns – usually making children’s hearts leap for joy – suddenly are hideous grimaces. Each balloon becomes a threat and even the sweetest candy floss has a bitter aftertaste. In the Valley of Death the visitors definitely need nerves of steel. Zombies, killer clowns, chain saw killers and other dark creatures realise immediately who is frightened and take every opportunity to torment their victims.

After last year’s successful premiere, the Terenzi Horror Nights 2 at Europa-Park offer even more creeps, spine-chillers and thrills with five new attractions! The producers Marc Terenzi, US singer, and Michael Mack, management Europa-Park, promise unforgettable evenings in Germany’s biggest theme park and plenty of sleepless nights. “The Attic” takes the guests into pitch-black darkness, inside the “Freak Factory” unfortunate victims are chased by the “Hunter” and even children’s toys are nightmarish tools in “Rosemarie’s Nightmare”. All those who can escape from the cruel fools in the “Carnival of Fear” can try a step or two with the undead in the haunted house “Black Wood Mansion”. The Terenzi Horror Nights 2 offer spine-tingling thrills for every horror fan!

The Attic

Maybe it would have been better not to accept the invitation of the friendly old lady with the foul teeth. But now there is definitely no way out. Pitch-black darkness surrounds the fearless. Suddenly a shrill outcry. A cold wind blows inside the ruins. Or is it the cold breath of the undead, approaching the victims? Every step becomes a nightmare in the Attic’s narrow corridors. What’s behind the next corner? Will I even reach it?

Freak Factory

Inside the Freak Factory, paranoia suddenly has a whole different meaning. All those who once catch sight of the “Hunter”, will run as fast as they can to reach the exit of the run-down building. The clanging of sharp knives makes the visitors shiver with fear even though the “Hunter” is still at a safe distance. Pale light shimmers through broken windows, spider webs cover old cases – the contents will never be revealed... A dark secret is hidden inside the old factory - the visitors are paralysed with fear, not able to move and escape from the “Hunter”. Rats are shrieking in dark corners and the “Hunter” is fast approaching... And even the lucky ones - the ones who were able to escape - will never forget the bloody showdown!

Rosemarie´s Nightmare

Dolls, children´s toys and stuffed animals – here the visitors feel safe and sheltered. But the cosy ambience is a deceptive trap, because during their terrifying trip through this false children´s paradise, the visitors are confronted with Rosemarie´s dark secrets. Little Rosi is up to mischief inside the spooky ruins and every cute little teddy bear suddenly becomes a diabolic threat. All those who dare to join this nightmarish trip have to make sure that they can face the consequences...

Black Wood Mansion

“What´s that knock behind me? Or is it just the pounding of my fearful heart?” The cruel trip through the basement of Black Wood Mansion makes it impossible for the visitors to think. Scenery after scenery reveals pure horror – the slimy contents of anatomic exhibits suddenly are alive and a couple of dancing creatures saved their last dance for a shocking performance. The undead are gathering inside Black Wood Mansion and the visitors soon realise that they are doomed!

Carnival of Fear

Funny clowns and cruel tricks – those who fall for the Carnival of Fear, will soon be sucked into a nightmarish scenery of terror. What just seemed to be a wonderful bouquet of flowers turns out to be the cruel setup of frightening mimes and demonic harlequins. Once the nervous visitors escape from the malicious whisper inside the Carnival of Fear, even more terrifying mischief is waiting for them in the Valley of Death...
